No Rights Given Beyond Greenfield.

The street railway committee of the Legislature have reported a bill giving the Conway street railway the right to extend its lines into Greenfield, subject of course, to the action of the selectmen in granting locations. The bill gives the company no rights beyond Greenfield, so that its chances for extending to Turners Falls and Northfield appear to be poor. By this bill it can make such extensions in Greenfield as the local authorities may permit.

No Rights Given Beyond Greenfield - Apparently the locally owned Conway Electric Street Railway had intentions of connecting its line to Greenfield, and had received permission to do so from the legislature. This, of course, never happened. Could things have unfolded differently?

NewspaperArchive by Storied

Greenfield Gazette And Courier, March 29, 1902 Pg. 6, Greenfield, Massachusetts, US
https://newspaperarchive.com/greenfield-gazette-and-courier-mar-29-1902-p-6/